

Personal Reference Form

Dear: _____

I am applying to the Life Solutions Biblical Training Center (LSCTC). I will be enrolling to become a CERTIFIED BIBLICAL COUNSELOR. Would you please complete the reference material below for me and forward it to LSCTC as soon as possible? Your prompt attention to this would be very much appreciated as my application will not be processed until the organization receives this recommendation from you.

Sincerely,

NOTE from LSCTC: LSCTC is a ministry of NorthRoad Church in St. Peters, MO. LSCTC is recommended by the American Academy of Biblical Counselors and International Association of Biblical Counselors. The staff of LSCTC offers Biblical Counseling on a sliding scale and/or free to qualifying individuals. The Center also conducts training of qualified Christians in the area of Biblical Counseling for certification.

What is Biblical Counseling?

Biblical counseling is also known as Nouthetic Counseling. The counselor believes all that is needed to help a person love God and his neighbor as he should is found in the Bible.

There is a comfort, encouragement, restoration, and change found in Biblical Counseling. This is accomplished in God's children who seek to help one another become more like Christ. Thus, Biblical counseling is considered to be part of the Christian growth (sanctification) process whereby one Christian helps another get through difficulty that is limiting spiritual growth. One Christian gives counsel to another from the Scriptures, not with his own ideas or the ideas of others. He limits his counsel strictly to that which may be found in the Bible. Thus, Biblical counselors lovingly confront people out of a deep concern, in order to help them make the changes God requires. Moreover, Biblical counselors are concerned that counseling is always done to benefit the counselee in the spirit of I Corinthians 4:14. All forms of counseling, Biblical, Christian or secular, seek to effect change. Biblical counselors believe God's Word is sufficient to deal with all of our problems. Thus, Scripture is totally sufficient to help us change. This concept is expressed clearly in II Timothy 3:16-17.

How can I become a Biblical Counselor?

Consistent with Romans 15:14, we believe all Christians are to counsel. Moreover, there are those who are called to counsel in more of a formal atmosphere. It is these people with whom LSCTC is prepared to train.

The need for Biblical Counselors is illustrated in Galatians 6:1-5. Those considering becoming a Biblical Counselor are to be spiritual people, as the Holy Spirit produces the correct attitude, values and appreciation for God's Word. Counselors must learn to restore others to fellowship, be honest about themselves, take sin seriously, have complete confidence in God's Word and apply Biblical principles to all areas of their lives.

Please return the completed reference with a week. Your cooperation will be very much appreciated. Please mail to Life Solutions Counseling and Training Center 1120 Jungs Station Rd. St. Peters, MO 63376 Email: lifesolutionscenter@yahoo.com Fax: 314-276-5301.
